Junior Art Competition 2021

'A line is a dot that went for a walk'

Paul Klee

Line is a key element in almost all forms of art. Lines allow us to draw both from imagination, and what we see everyday. Lines enable us to take others on a journey, and show them what we see through our art. Paul Klee used line in inventive ways to create abstract scenes of places he visited.

Paul Klee is a key inspiration of Birmingham based graphic artist Alex Edwards – known as Brumhaus. Alex Edwards depicts familiar scenes of Birmingham's ever-changing skyline, as seen from his commute to work – a journey he made every day.

COMPETITION RULES

- All entries must be submitted on a copy of the official entry form.
- Your work must be landscape format, and within the frame.
- You must incorporate the 'dot' starting point into your work.
- Your entry can be based on observation and/or imagination and you may work in any medium of your choice.
- Digital artwork (excluding Photography) is permitted, provided it is printed, fits within the frame on the template, and includes the dot starting point.

'Temple Gardens' by Paul Klee

'Brum Cityscape II' by Alex Edwards

In the frame provided, turn the dot starting point into a line that depicts an actual journey – it can be a local journey or walk you take regularly, a journey you have taken to a far-away destination, or a journey you would love to take. Your work might show something you would see whilst on the journey, the method of transport or the route taken on a map.

COMPETITION DEADLINE

Post your entry to the school address to arrive no later than Friday 7 May 2021.

PRIZES

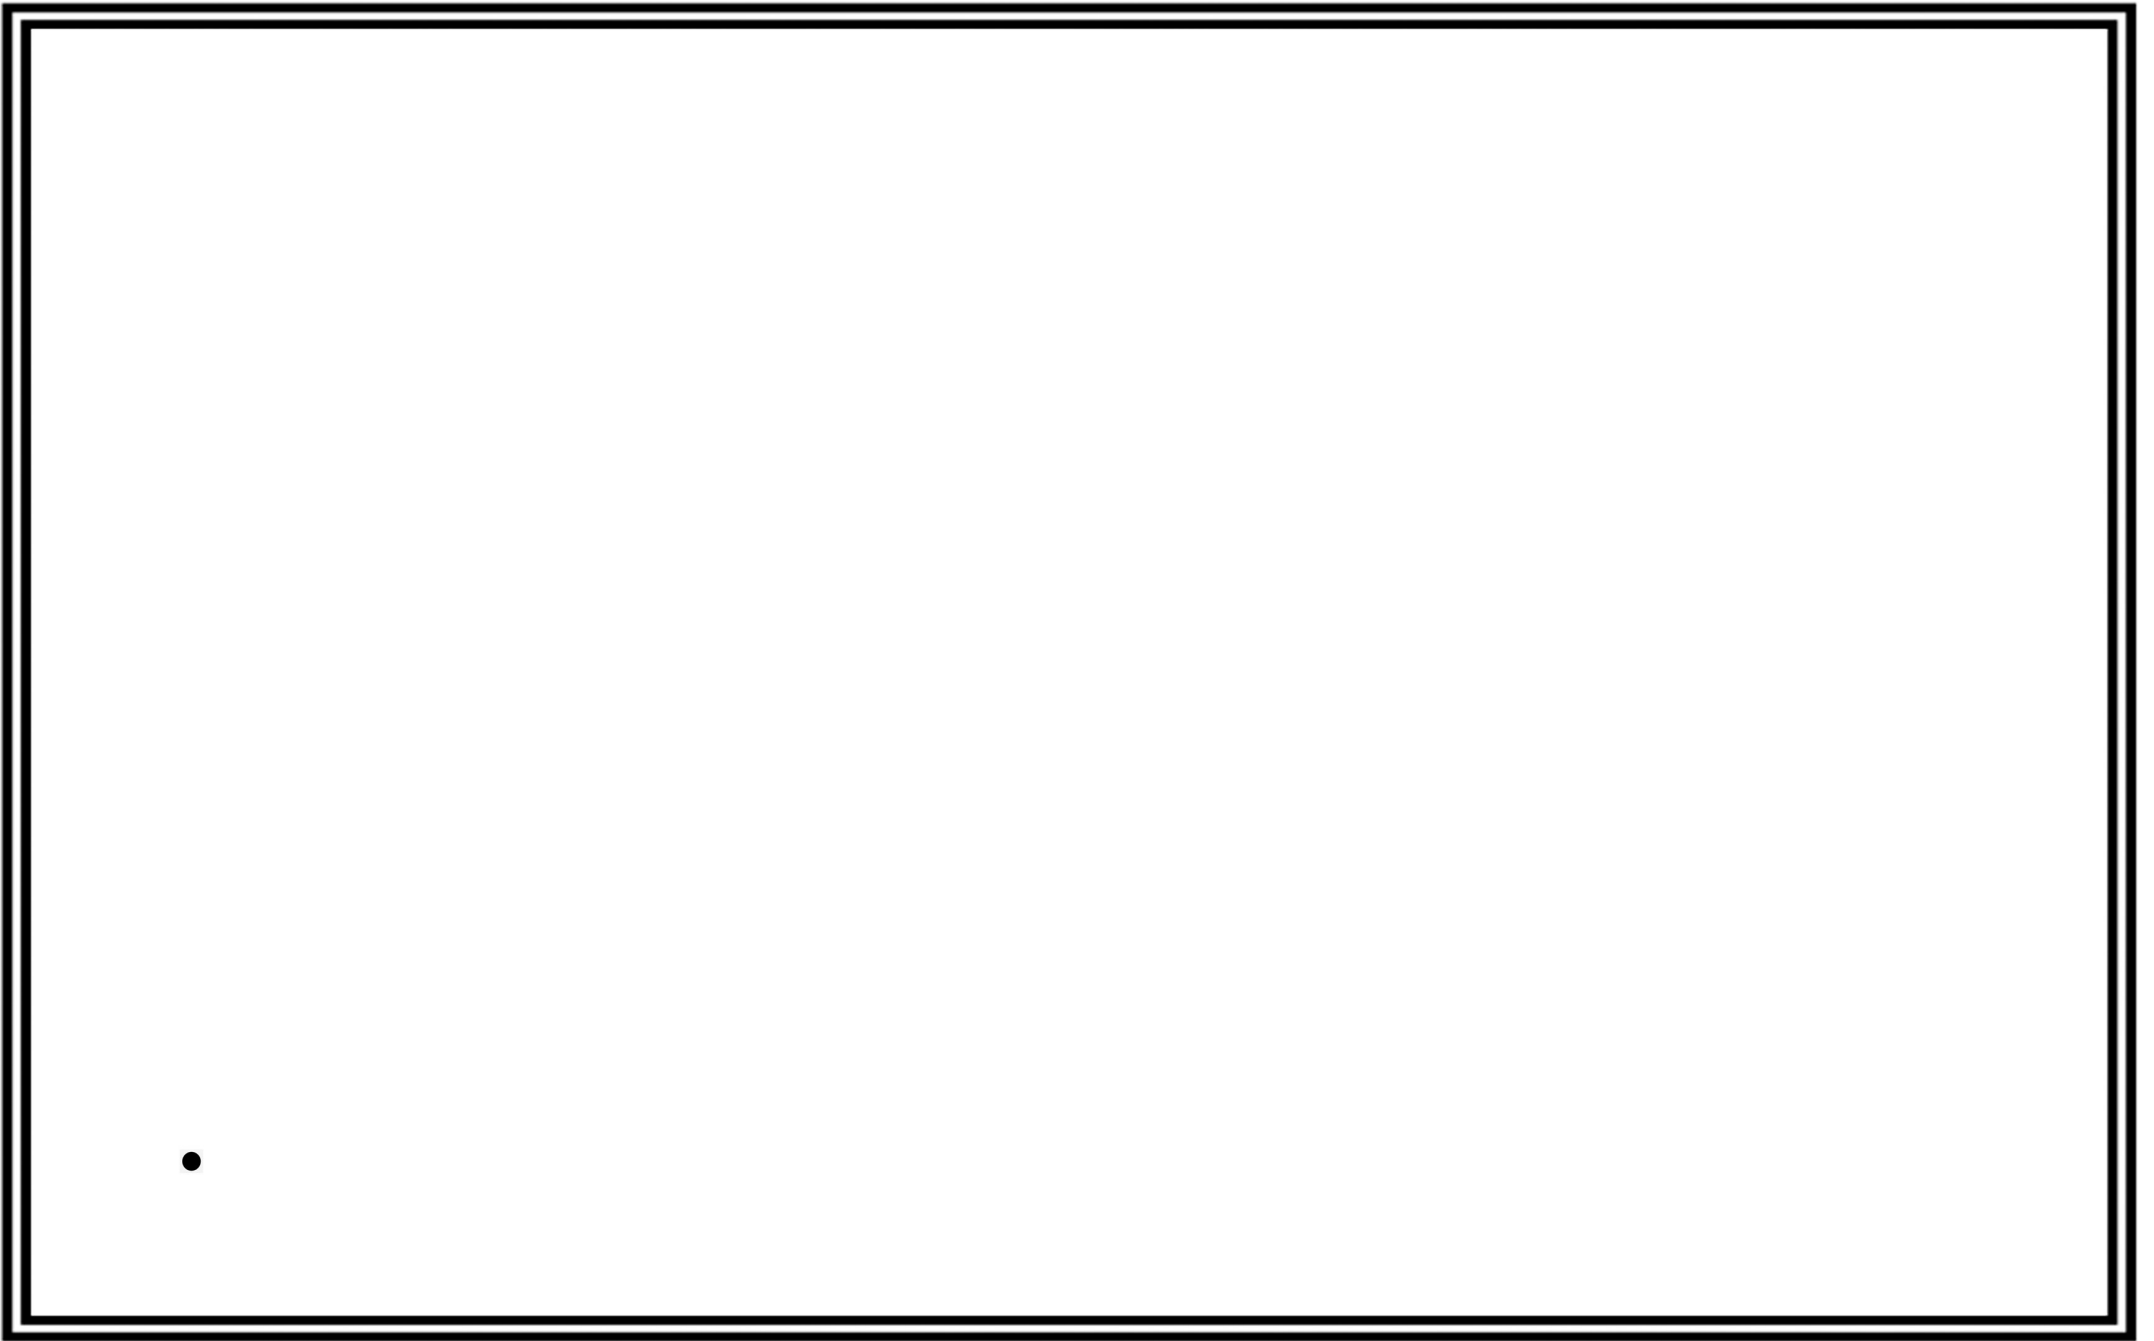

All entrants will feature in a special exhibition to be held at Highclare School and will receive a VIP invitation and certificate.

10 winning entries will be presented with certificate and a prize of art materials.
